Congratulations on choosing China!

Traveling to China to adopt is an exciting beginning to a new life with a new family member.

China requests that each adoptive family keep your emotional and personal focus on the adoption of your child. European Adoption Consultants believes similarly, and the following regulations pertain to same. Please read and indicate your understanding and acceptance by signing and returning to EAC with this registration packet.

1. No person other than the adoptive parents may visit the orphanage.
2. There is a fee of $75.00 per day, per person, assessed each family that brings other family members to China. This fee must be paid prior to travel to China.
3. Any adoptive family traveling with a child/ren under the age of ten years old are required to also take along another adult to help with the child. This other adult needs to be someone other than the parents.
4. Adoptive parents would be responsible for paying the following for the additional adult and child/ren:
 - Passport
 - Visa
 - Airline Tickets
 - Hotel Accommodations
 - Food
 - Spending Money
 - Touring Fees
